INFORMATION ON THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA
(Art. 13 EU Regulation 2016/679)
TOLL INVOICING, TOLL REIMBURSEMENT

Autostrada del Brennero S.p.A. as Data Controller, hereby informs you, pursuant to Article 13 of EU Regulation no. 679 of 27 April 2016 "General Data Protection Regulation" (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulation"), that the information contained in the billing request form and toll reimbursement form and the data derived from the provision of the service will be processed as follows:

1. Purpose of the processing and legal basis

Personal data are processed for administrative and management purposes related to invoicing or toll reimbursement requested by you, where applicable. The legal basis for the processing can be found in the fulfilment of contractual obligations underlying the use of the motorway section and in regulatory obligations related to administrative, accounting, and tax activities.

2. Data provision obligations and data retention periods

The provision of the requested data is necessary for invoicing or reimbursement. Failure to provide this information, even partially, may compromise the outcome of the request. The data collected will be retained for 10 years, in compliance with the time limits established by current accounting and tax regulations.
The personal data collected and processed by Autostrada del Brennero S.p.A. include personal details and contact details, vehicle registration number and transit data. The data are processed in compliance with the regulations in force by means of manual, computerised and telematic tools, with logic strictly related to the purposes indicated, in such a way as to guarantee the security and confidentiality of the data, which are stored securely. The data will not be communicated to others nor transferred abroad.

3. Recipients of personal data

Personal data are processed by authorised, suitably trained personnel operating under the authority and responsibility of the Data Controller. Personal data may also be processed by third parties who provide instrumental services, including IT service providers and other service providers relevant to the aforementioned purposes: these parties process only the data strictly necessary for the performance of the relevant functions. The updated list of all recipients is available at the Data Controller's premises.

4. Rights of the data subject

The data subject may exercise the rights provided for in CHAPTER III of the aforementioned Regulation at any time. In particular, the data subject has the right to ask the Data Controller for access to data concerning them, their rectification or erasure, the integration of incomplete data, the restriction of processing, as well as to exercise any other rights recognised to them by the applicable legislation. These rights can be exercised by writing to the Data Protection Officer (DPO) by mail. Pursuant to Article 77 of the EU Regulation 2016/679, the data subject also has the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Authority if they consider that the processing violates the aforementioned Regulation.
