INFORMATION AND CONSENT ON THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA IN ACCIDENT DAMAGE COMPENSATION CLAIMS (EU Regulation 2016/679)

Autostrada del Brennero S.p.A. as Data Controller hereby informs you, pursuant to the Articles 13 and 14 of the EU Regulation April 27, 2016 no. 679 "General Data Protection Regulation" (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulation"), that the personal data collected in the context of the form for the claim for compensation for accidents and those derived from other sources available to the company regarding the specific event will be processed as follows:

1. Purposes and lawful basis of the data processing

The data will be processed for management and administrative purposes linked with the claim for compensation and the relative insurance procedures, as well as the management of any dispute. The lawful basis for processing is your freely given consent and the legitimate interest of the Data Controller for corporate protection.

2. Conferment and storage of data

The provision of personal data, including where applicable special categories of personal data (those marked with the symbol * as mandatory fields in the online form), is necessary for the start of the procedure of a compensation claim and the relative insurance procedures. The remaining data, when pertinent, may be necessary for completing the description of the event for insurance purposes. If not given, a request for the integration of the information may be made at a later stage.

The data collected will be processed up until the conclusion of the procedure and, once terminated, they will be kept for the period provided for in the regulations regarding the storage of documents for administrative, accounting, tax, contractual and insurance purposes.

The data may also be retained for the protection of the data subject or for the protection of the Company, in the case of legal actions, until the end of the period within which the legal action can be exercised or until the end of the final and definitive rulings in the case of ongoing litigation.

3. Recipients of personal data

The personal data will be processed by authorized and appropriately trained personnel who operate under the authority and management of the Data Controller. The information will be forwarded to insurance companies and/or independent experts for the purposes of insurance management of the file, and in the case of legal proceedings, to entities operating in the administrative/judicial sector, to counterparties and their appointed lawyers, to boards of arbitrators and in general to all those entities to whom disclosure is necessary for the proper fulfilment of the purposes described above and in compliance with the applicable legislation.

The personal data may also be processed by third parties who provide necessary services, among which communication, email, mail delivery and IT services and other service suppliers inherent in the aforementioned purposes: only the data strictly necessary for execution of these operations will be communicated to these persons.

4. Data subject rights

The data subject may exercise the rights provided for in Chapter 3 of the aforementioned Regulation. In particular, the data subject has the right to ask the Data Controller for access to data collected on them, their correction or deletion, the updating of incomplete data and restriction of processing. They have the right to receive the data in a commonly used and structured format, readable on an automatic device and the right to object to all or part of the use of the data as well as exercising the other rights granted by the applicable legislation. Furthermore, the data subject has the right to revoke any consent given, at any time. Such rights may be exercised in writing via post to the Data Protection Officer (DPO). Pursuant to the Article 77 of the EU Regulation 2016/679, the data subject also has the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Authority if they believe that the processing violates the Regulation.

5. Data Controller and Data Protection Officer

Data Controller for personal data processing is Autostrada del Brennero S.p.A. with headquarters in Via Berlino 10, 38121, Trento, Italy. The Data Protection Officer (DPO) is domiciled for duties at the Data Controller's headquarters and can be contacted by email at the address privacy@autobrennero.it.
