Autostrada del Brennero S.p.A., as data controller, hereby informs its suppliers, pursuant to article 12 et seq. of the EU regulation of April 27, 2016 no. 679 “General Data Protection Regulation” (hereinafter the “Regulation”) and the Legislative Decree 196/2003 and subsequent amendments personal data belonging to natural persons will be processed as follows:

1. Purpose of the data processing
Personal data may be processed for the following purposes:
- a. performance of the obligations derived from a contract which the Supplier is party to, or to satisfy specific requests prior to the execution of the contract;
- b. fulfillment of legal obligations connected to civil, tax and accounting requirements;
- c. management of Suppliers (administration of the suppliers, administration of the contracts, orders, invoices; selections based on the needs of the company);
- d. management of disputes (failure to comply with contractual obligations, injunctions, transactions, debt collection, arbitration, legal disputes);

2. Lawful basis and conferment/storage of data
The lawful basis for data processing set out in points 1.a.) 1.c.) is the contract which the Supplier is party to or the execution of pre-contractual measures adopted at its request. The lawful basis for the data processing of points 1.b.) and 1.d.) is the necessity to fulfill the legal obligations that the Data Controller is subject to and the legitimate interest of the Data Controller within a business relationship. Conferment of information is necessary for the fulfillment of legal and contractual obligations, therefore, refusal to supply some of the data may make performance of the contract impossible. The data will be stored for the period stipulated by the applicable laws in force.

3. Recipients of personal data
The personal data provided will be processed by appointed and appropriately trained personnel who operate under the authority and management of the Data Controller. The personal data may also be processed by third parties who provide instrumental services, among which communication, email and mail delivery services, IT technical services, haulage companies, banks and credit institutions, debt collection companies, firms or partnerships for legal, tax and business advice, insurance companies and other service suppliers inherent in the purposes above. Only the data strictly necessary for these operations will be communicated to the aforementioned persons. The updated list of all recipients is available at the Data Controller’s headquarters.

4. Data subject rights
The data subject may exercise the rights provided for in Chapter 3 of the aforementioned Regulation. In particular, the data subject has the right to ask the Data Controller for access to data collected on them, their correction or deletion, the updating of incomplete data and restriction of processing. They have the right to receive the data in a commonly used and structured format, readable on an automatic device and the right to object to all or part of the use of the data as well as exercising the other rights granted by the applicable legislation. These rights can be exercised in writing by post to the Data Protection Officer (DPO), domiciled for duties at the Data Controller’s headquarters, or by sending an email to: privacy@autobrennero.it. Pursuant to the Article 77 of the EU Regulation 2016/679, the data subject also has the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Authority if they believe that the processing violates the Regulation.
