

Information for users on personal data processing non-payment of toll charge

Autostrada del Brennero S.p.A., as Data Controller, hereby informs its Users, pursuant to Article 13 et seq. of the EU regulation of April 27, 2016 no. 679 “General Data Protection Regulation” (hereinafter the “Regulation”), that for the management of the motorway toll non-payment procedure the User’s personal data may be processed, data that has been conferred by the User via the appropriate paper form and online or collected by automatic systems (vehicle license plate, transit data, time and place of toll non-payment).

Please note that the Autostrada del Brennero S.p.A toll stations are equipped with a video recording system that, when non-payment of the toll occurs or if the customer fails to present the entrance toll ticket or engages the control systems improperly or with malfunctioning devices, it automatically records the license plate of the vehicles in transit for subsequent toll payment and, where necessary, to complete a civil, administrative and/or criminal case where provided for in the Article 176 of the Legislative Decree 285/1992 (Road Traffic Law).

1. Purpose of the data processing

The aforementioned data may be processed for the settlement of a non-payment case, for administrative and accounting purposes; to meet legal obligations connected with statutory, tax and accounting regulations; litigation management (warnings, transactions, debt collection, arbitration, legal disputes).

2. Lawful basis, conferment

The lawful basis for the data processing is provided by the regulations present in the Legislative Decree 285/1992, from the performance of the contract underlying the use of the section of motorway and the legitimate interest of the Data Controller to recover unpaid debts. The provision of the information required by the form for the settlement of non-payment cases conditions ability to respond to the requirements effectively.

3. Storage of the personal data

The data will be stored until the conclusion of the process and thereafter archived for 10 years.

4. Recipients of personal data

The personal data will be processed by authorized and appropriately trained personnel who operate under the authority and management of the Data Controller. The data may also be processed by third parties who provide instrumental services, among which communication, email and mail delivery services, IT services, banks and financial institutions and other service suppliers inherent in the aforementioned purposes. Only the data strictly necessary for these operations will be communicated to the aforementioned persons. The updated list of all recipients and managers is available at the Data Controller’s headquarters.

5. Data subject rights

The data subject may exercise the rights provided for in Chapter 3 of the aforementioned Regulation.

In particular, the data subject has the right to ask the Data Controller for access to data collected on them, and with legitimate cause, request their correction or deletion, the updating of incomplete data and restriction of the processing. They have the right to receive the data in a commonly used and structured format, readable on an automatic device and the right to object to all or part of the use of the data as well as exercising the other rights granted by the applicable legislation. These rights can be exercised by sending a letter by post to the Data Protection Officer (DPO), domiciled for duties at the Data Controller’s headquarters, or by email sent to the following address: privacy@autobrennero.it.

Pursuant to the Article 77 of the EU Regulation 2016/679, the data subject also has the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Authority if they believe that the processing violates the Regulation.

6. Data Controller and Data Protection Officer

Data Controller for personal data processing is Autostrada del Brennero S.p.A. with headquarters in Via Berlino 10, 38121, Trento, Italy. The Data Protection Officer (DPO) is domiciled for duties at the Data Controller’s headquarters and can be contacted through the following means: Tel 0461 212611 – email privacy@autobrennero.it